In the 1960's, when Bern Laxer began collecting wine he had one goal to offer guests the opportunity to drink any kind of wine, from anywhere in the world at a reasonable price.

Today, that is still our goal at Bern's Steak House.

Our extraordinary wine collection is one of the largest in the world and has approximately 6,500 different labels.

Should you need assistance in selecting a wine to complement your dinner or budget, our Sommeliers can expertly guide you through the list.

Additionally, since we receive new wines almost daily that are not included here, please review our wines by-the-glass list which features nearly 120 selections.

After dinner be sure to tour our working wine cellar within the kitchen.

We hope you enjoy your unique dining experience at Bern's Steak House.

White Wines
The wine staff at Bern's Steak House believes that certain white wines are best when young. We therefore strive to purchase the latest releases of these wines, to ensure freshness. The white wines listed below from the following countries appear without vintage designation: America, Australia, Chile, Italy, New Zealand and Spain. When ordering these wines, expect to receive the current vintage available in our market. If you have any questions regarding a particular wine please feel welcome to ask your Server or one of our Sommeliers.
AMERICA
Non-Alcoholic
6875	Fre Chardonnay		29.95
Chardonnay
Light to rich golden in color, the bouquet is of apple or peach blossoms. Flavor will be creamy, rich in fruit flavors and yet clean, dry, tart, crisp and well balanced. When aged in small oak barrels or allowed to undergo malolactic fermentation, the wine will often have a further buttery roundness with the additional oak flavors of vanilla and butter-scotch. The mouth-filling flavors linger on with a rich, clean after-taste. Very full-bodied and dry, the best Chardonnays improve with 2-4 years of bottle age—more with the very best wines, and more in the best cellars.

5427	Scholium Project Chardonnay 2007, The Sylphs, Guman Vineyard, California	155.00	One of the great wines of Alsace. In the last 30 years it has become better know by its Italian name, Pinot Grigio. America is now producing some fine examples of this food friendly grape. Stylistically it can be broad and mouth filling, like they do in Alsace, or composed of fruity flavors, like Italy.

2960	Sonoma-Cutrer Chardonnay, Russian River	49.95	Sauvignon Blanc
5137	Spring Mountain Vineyards Chardonnay 1980, Napa	199.00	Sauvignon Blanc is generally a food wine with no residual sugar. Whereas some Chenin Blancs and White Rieslings, for example, may be crafted a bit too sweet to properly accompany some foods, Sauvignon Blanc rarely is—it will almost always be suitable at the dining table.
5348	St. Francis Chardonnay, Sonoma	37.95	Sauvignon Blanc will be pale to medium yellow. It sometimes has a vegetative bouquet usually fresh grass, weedy, herbaceous, or spicy. Another style displays a fruity aroma.
4729	Staglin Family Chardonnay 2006, Rutherford	165.00	Flavors can be refreshingly crisp—again, grassy, weedy, earthy, herbaceous or they may reveal a melon taste. Sauvignon Blanc is often aged in oak for a rich, mellower, more complex, and slightly vanilla flavor. Acid will usually vary but be very adequate. Body is usually full, and finish will be long. At best, this wine is soft, elegant, and very well balanced. Like Chardonnay, the best Sauvignon Blanc seems to mellow and round out with a couple of years of bottle age.

1406	Titus Cabernet 2018, Napa	90.95		CARIGNANE
620	Titus Cabernet 2008, Napa	99.00		Carignane is a wine that almost always requires age, but is worth the trouble. Aging returns a certain amount of complexity of bouquet and flavor, and a nice long, satisfying finish.

302	Vichon Cabernet 1990, Napa	325.00		Most often, Charbono is dark-colored, heavy, coarse, and not fruity, but rich in flavor nuances when it is young. Although you don't have to age Charbono, it improves immensely with bottle age, and will soften and show its fruit and character when its tannins settle out. It's not unlike Barbera, but is usually heavier in body.
5141	Vichon Cabernet 1982, Fay Vineyard, Napa	215.00		When it is fully aged, it will exhibit an elegance and a somewhat spicy rich-ness all its own. This may take five, ten, or fifteen years—or more in very cool cellars—but if you've tasted some fine aged bottles, you'll know that this often powerful wine is worth the wait.

ITALIAN VARIETALS
During the past few years we have seen a remarkable increase in the number of Italian grape varieties planted in California. Sangiovese was unheard of in California until the mid 1990s. This is the main red grape of Chianti. The climate and soils of California are well suited for Sangiovese and we are beginning to see some world class Sangiovese's being produced.

MERLOT
Merlot is known for its intense, deep, blue-black color and berry bouquet. Merlot's flavors can be lush, with a soft, glycerin-rich, velvety texture that is mouth-filling. Merlot also produces wines that usually are soft much sooner than Cabernet Sauvignon. Tannins are softer and this may make them more enjoyable at a younger age. Merlot will definitely improve with age, and in many instances almost as long as a good Cabernet Sauvignon.

	PETITE SIRAH			PINOT NOIR
	Petite Sirah is often coarse and tannic when young. However it seems that when Petite Sirah is balanced in youth, it presages a good future. When it is aged, it will retain its spicy bouquet and peppery aroma, and will also, usually, be extremely dark in color, rich, fruity, deep, mellow, and complex in flavor. It will often have a very full body, and a fine, rich, lingering aftertaste.			Classic Pinot Noir, at its best, is a balance of many qualities. The crimson-red color is inviting, and the intense, luxurious aroma with its subtle hints of raspberries or violets is unforgettable. The elegance of the fruit and the lingering finish are what wine makers keep trying to capture.

ZINFANDEL

Although you will almost always find raspberry and blackberry flavors in Zinfandel, you will also often taste other flavors. They will be in any combination of spicy, herby, grassy, jammy, and minty, chocolate, and even licorice—among still other flavors that you might ascribe to this wine. Everyone can find a few more “flavor nuances” or “hint of something” in Zinfandel. Some Zinfandels are meant to be drunk while they are young. They won't last a long time, and they are tasty when they are still fresh. Many Zinfandels, however, are made in the style of Cabernet, that is, they improve with age, and are worth investigating. They will soften considerably with years in the bottle.
